EXTRACTS FROM REVIEWS.

"One of the most ambitious, and ought to be, when it is complete, one of the most generally useful legal works which the present century has produced."—Literature.

"A perfect storehouse of the principles established and illustrated by our case law and that of the United States."—Law Times.

"By this time this series has become so widely known, and doubtless appreciated, that it becomes unnecessary to do much more than chronicle the appearance of the new volume, to state the contents, and to say that its workmanship is quite up to the former level."—Law Journal.

"A work of unusual value and interest. . . . Each leading case or group of cases is preceded by a statement in bold type of the rule which they are quoted as establishing. The work is happy in conception, and this first volume shows that it will be adequately and successfully carried out."—Solicitors' Journal.

"The general scheme appears to be excellent, and its execution reflects the greatest credit on everybody concerned. It may, indeed, be said to constitute, for the present, the high-water mark of the science of book-making."—Saturday Review.

"The English Ruling Cases seem generally to have been well and carefully chosen, and a great amount of work has been expended. . . . Great accuracy and care are shown in the preparation of the Notes."—Law Quarterly Review.

"A Cyclopædia of law . . . most ably executed, learned, accurate, clear, concise; but perhaps its chief merit is that it impresses on us what the practising English lawyer is too apt to forget—that English law really is a body of principles."—The British Review.

TABLE

SHOWING THE DATE OF THE VOLUMES AND THE CONCURRENT SERIES OF REPORTS

FROM 1810 TO 1897 INCLUSIVE.

NOTE.—To find the date of the Law Journal Reports, add 31 to the number of the volume.

e.g. 63 L. J. + 31 = 1894.

In the case of the Old Series of the Law Journal Reports, 22 must be added.

e.g. 4 L. J. (O.S.) + 22 = 1826.

To find the date of the Weekly Reporter, add 52 to the number of the volume.

e.g. 34 W. R. + 52 = 1886.

In the case of the Law Times there are 2 volumes a year, so 59 must be added to the half of the number of the volume.

e.g. 22 L. T. = 11 + 59 = 1870.

The Most Notable Legal Work of the Century.

ENCYCLOPÆDIA
OF THE
LAWS OF ENGLAND

Being a New Abridgment
BY THE MOST EMINENT LIVING AUTHORITIES.

THIS Encyclopædia is the work, not of one author, but of the best authorities that can be obtained on the multitudinous and comprehensive subjects with which it deals. It is, moreover, no mere collection of short legal essays, but has been planned and written in a thoroughly practical way, with references to all important decisions and text-books which a lawyer in practice may require.

No considerations of labour and expense have been allowed to outweigh the great object of making the work complete, accurate, and authoritative.

For editorial supervision the Publishers have secured the services of Mr. A. WOOD RENTON, M.A., LL.B., Barrister-at-Law, sometime Editor of the Law Journal, Member of the Mercantile Law Committee of the Society of Comparative Legislation.

The following gentlemen, among many others, are contributors :—

EXTRACTS FROM REVIEWS.

"The subjects appear to have been allotted to the right people, and dealt with at a length fairly proportionate to their importance, in a business-like manner, and with careful avoidance of irrelevant matter and of merely antiquarian and other excessive detail."—Law Quarterly.

"The performance has exceeded the promise. Its excellences are such that it must speedily become the recognised work in which to seek general information on English Law."—Law Journal.

"Up to the reputation of its authors, whose names generally are known as those of careful and competent lawyers."—Law Times.

"A great work prepared with care and skill. The most ambitious work of its kind that has ever been attempted."—Justice of the Peace.

"A very remarkable work, thoroughly well done, and differing in kind and degree from anything that has ever gone before."—Solicitors' Gazette.
